FREEDOM

Sometimes it's time to make a point. When you feel like stealing away from the hectic stress of everyday urban life, don't hesitate to enter your private little retreat that welcomes you with monastic silence and allows you to find clarity and concentration. Fold your hands in the middle of your chest and feel your creative energy flowing.

Use your inspiration to create a simple yet dedicated necklace caringly composed from a blend of simple knotting techniques and delicate crystals combined with the soothing effect of Crystal Pearls – all by CREATE your STYLE™ with CRYSTALLIZED™ – Swarovski Elements. The sun shaped pendant tied up from several sparkling Crystal Pendants is an archaic symbol of focused contemplation.

BALANCE DISTINGUISHED

There is no need to abstain from an outstanding styling if one feels in the mood of achieving calm. Silently balancing the things helps to bring expressive stillness into style. Paying attention to details will pleasingly distinguish your look and add an impeccable precious accent.

A button remains the most functional part of your dress until you turn it into a discrete eye catcher by thoughtfully decorating it with clear geometric shapes and simple naive motifs. The refined sparkles by CREATE your STYLE™ with CRYSTALLIZED™ – Swarovski Elements perfectly fit with any occasion and points out the grace of your motions.

HANDCRAFTS PILGRIMAGE SILENCE MEDITATION

Creativity is a proven remedy against stress and a joyful distraction. Opt for unpretentious necklaces as contemplative "objets d'art". The repetitive work process of tying one knot after the next is a meditation in itself that when adding bigger sized CRYSTALLIZED™ – Swarovski Elements resembles following the traces of pilgrimage with the rosary in your hands.

By wearing unostentatious self-made pieces with CREATE your STYLE™ with CRYSTALLIZED™ – Swarovski Elements subtly express your inner self and calmly underline your natural beauty. The huge Moon Pendant attached at the fluid chain functionally serves as a closure and literally opens up horizons when you hold it in your hand.
